OH, THE STORIES YOU WILL TELL

They say Saint John is the only city in Canada that rises by 30 feet with the Fundy tides. It's a place where 3,000 tonnes of rushing seawater can make a river flow backwards. And where the world's most powerful tides have carved their way into the heart of the city.

ARTS & CULTURE

If our buildings could speak, what would they say? What stories would they tell if you just stopped and listened? Here, our arts and culture are all around you. All you have to do is get out and explore our beautiful city to see and feel it.

EXPLORE UPTOWN SAINT JOHN

Do some urban exploring in historic Uptown Saint John. Drop into our boutiques, studios and restaurants and stroll the waterfront – envisioning all the seafaring history that has unfolded there. Discover quaint alleyways, old-school pubs and teeny tiny art galleries. People-watch on the Boardwalk, or relax in King's Square – this is a tour guided by you.

FOLLOW THE SCULPTURE TRAIL

Sculpture Saint John has brought sculptors from around the globe to carve New Brunswick granite into works of public art. Currently 22 finished pieces are available to visit as part of the Sculpture Trail, 18 of which are installed in locations around Saint John. Visit sculpturesaintjohn.com for a complete list and trail map. Also see the Sculpture Saint John International Sculpture Symposium on page 51.

ENJOY MARKET SQUARE

The historic Market Slip area of the Saint John waterfront has been a destination for hundreds of years. Nowadays, visitors enjoy dining, shopping, relaxing and playing along the Boardwalk and in Market Square's public spaces, which are an intriguing blend of historic and modern architecture and style, incorporating the old brick façades of the warehouses that used to line Market Slip over a century ago. Hosting events including Buskers, beer festivals and other entertainment all year long, Market Square is part of the Inside Connection, which links to two hotels and the Harbour Passage trail.

STEP BACK IN TIME AT BARBOUR'S GENERAL STORE

Barbour's General Store resembles an authentic 18th century general store that was lovingly restored as a museum in celebration of Canada's 1967 centennial and Barbour's 100th year in business. The area outside the store is home to People Waiting, a charming piece of public art by artist, John Hooper. Located at St. Andrew's Bicentennial Green in the city centre.

STEP THROUGH TIME AT LOYALIST HOUSE

Loyalist House, the former home of the Merritt family – loyalists who emigrated from the United States after the Revolutionary War – was constructed in 1817. It was one of the few surviving structures after the Great Fire of 1877. A National Historic Site, the home's Georgian features remain largely untouched, including its original grand staircase – which remains as it was so many years ago. Acquired by the New Brunswick Historical Society in 1959, the home is an amazing example of the quality of early Saint John craftsmanship.

SWING BY THE KING'S SQUARE BANDSTAND

The King Edward VII Memorial Bandstand, with its copper roof and its filigree metal framework, was constructed in 1908 as a gift to the city – donated by the City Cornet Band. It quickly became a favourite location for musical interludes in King's Square.

TOUR THE CARNEGIE BUILDING

Since its dedication on June 24, 1904, the Carnegie Building has remained an architectural jewel in Saint John. This lovely Beaux-Arts style building was formerly the home of one of the oldest public libraries in Canada, built with a donation of $50,000, given to the City of Saint John by the famous American philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie. Today the building houses the Saint John Arts Centre and the City of Saint John Gallery.

WANDER THROUGH THE OLD (LOYALIST) BURIAL GROUNDS

The Old Burial Ground is referred to by many names, most commonly the Loyalist Burial Grounds. The leafy, peaceful and park-like area is the final resting place of some of Saint John's earliest settlers – including many Americans loyal to the British crown, who emigrated from the United States during and after the American Revolutionary War (1775–1783). The earliest gravestone is that of Coonrad Hendricks, dated July 13, 1784. The Old Burial Ground was carefully restored by the Irving family in 1995, in memory of the late K. C. Irving (1899–1992), founder of the Irving group of companies. Sydney Street and King Street East

TAKE A SELF-GUIDED HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

At an hour and a half each, the self-guided Loyalist Trail, Victorian Stroll and Prince William Walk, will take you through the history and landmarks associated with our earliest settlers, the post-Great Fire residential renaissance and the emergence of the century grand commercial architecture.

Pick up the brochure at a Visitor Information Centre or download the Saint John Walking Tours App.

FORT LATOUR

Located along Harbour Passage, Fort LaTour was built in 1631 by Charles de LaTour as a fur trading post at a long-used Aboriginal encampment site. It was destroyed in 1645 by his rival countryman Charles de Menou d'Aulay. Some artefacts may be seen at the New Brunswick Museum and at the HMCS Brunswick Naval Reserve on Chelsey Drive.

TURN YOURSELF IN AT THE SAINT JOHN POLICE MUSEUM

The Saint John Police Museum is a treasure-trove of Saint John Police Force history – including old uniforms, billy sticks, handcuffs, badges, arrest books and photographs. LEARN ABOUT OUR HISTORIC CHURCHES AND CEMETERIES

Saint John is blessed with a wonderful collection of churches. Their spires and bell-towers are an important part of the Saint John skyline, just as their traditions and rituals are an important part of the lives of so many in our community. You can enjoy the art and architecture of these wonderful buildings, but a visit isn't complete without a stroll through their historic cemeteries and burial grounds. Wander amongst the historic grave markers – some dating back to 1783 – and steep in the history of these quiet places.

TRACE YOUR ROOTS

For eons a summering place for the Maliseet and Mi'kmaq First Nations, Saint John is the first place many immigrants set foot on Canadian soil. From the arrival of Samuel de Champlain and Pierre Dugua de Monts in 1604 to the flood of Loyalists who arrived in the late 1700s and from the thousands of Irish settlers who arrived before, during and after the Potato Famine to settlers from Europe and the Middle East who were processed through the Partridge Island quarantine station, now a National Historic Site, until after WWII, Saint John has always been a place to start fresh. If you're genealogically inclined, you can trace your ancestry using the resources at the one of the following:

FIND YOURSELF GEOCACHING

Geocaching and Earth Caching, are popular pastimes, with thousands of thoughtfully placed or identified caches just waiting for you to locate them. If you're just starting out, head on over to Inside Out Nature Centre (page 31) in Rockwood Park – they'll outfit you, show you how it's done, and then send you out searching for 10-12 custom caches.

GET HOOKED ON FISHING

Sturgeon, trout and more! If you're hankering for a day on the water – just a simple jaunt to the shoreline, and the calm rhythm of casting and retrieving – we have great news. Non-residents do not require fishing licenses for tidal waters in and around Saint John. Thankfully our tides are huge, so that means large stretches of our river system are available for license-free, non-salmon fishing. Fishing licenses are required for lakes, so if dropping a line into the stocked lakes of Rockwood Park is in your plan, you'll need a license. If salmon fishing is on your agenda, please note you may require a guide. All the information you'd ever need is available on the Natural Resources section of the Government of New Brunswick website.

MAY ASIAN HERITAGE MONTH CELEBRATIONS

IN GREATER SAINT JOHN

10TH
YEAR

ASIAN HERITAGE SOCIETY
OF NEW BRUNSWICK
SAINT JOHN CHAPTER

May is Asian Heritage Month! The purpose of Asian Heritage Month is to recognize and celebrate the many economic, political, social, and cultural contributions that Asian Canadians have made within their communities and across the nation. This special initiative was declared by the Government of Canada in May 2002 – “Be it resolved: That May be recognized as Asian Heritage Month, given the important contributions of Asian Canadians to the settlement, growth and development of Canada, the diversity of the Asian community, and its present significance to this country.”

ahsnb.saintjohn

The Asian Heritage Society of New Brunswick (AHSNB) is a not-for-profit organization that hosts a series of events and educational projects in celebration of Asian Heritage Month. Our work aims to foster intercultural exchange, integration, and respect by sharing and engaging community members in Asian culture, history, art, performing arts, cuisine, and much more!

May 2018 marks the 10th year of the Asian Heritage Month Celebrations in Saint John. Looking back to our humble beginning in 2008, we have had the privilege of watching Asian Heritage Month celebrations expand from a small public lecture to a month-long series of large-scale public events and activities. AHSNBSJ is proud to be a part of the growing cultural landscape of Saint John, and are so appreciative of the thousands of volunteers who have been the driving force behind all of our work. We work together and learn from each other, and unity is our ultimate goal.

We encourage you all to be a part of our upcoming Celebrations in Saint John!

EVENTS CALENDAR: MAY 2018

Opening Ceremony: Sunday, May 6th 2pm, Market Square Atrium

Culinary Workshop: Saturday, May 12, 11am – 1pm, Corner Stone Baptist Church, 42 Leinster Street

Don't Miss EXPERIENCES

With so much to do and so much to see, you'll leave Saint John with enough stories to write a book.

REVERSING FALLS RAPIDS

Where the Bay of Fundy's highest tides in the world rush up and over the Saint John River, they collide spectacularly, and the river actually reverses in the face of this unstoppable natural power. Enjoy harbour sightseeing tours, stand on a glass skywalk or zip across this amazing phenomenon. Make sure you check the tide tables (pages 12-13)!

CITY MARKET

Plan to grab a lunch or do some shopping at the Saint John City Market. The roof resembles the inverted hull of a ship, reflecting the city's shipbuilding past! Voted Canada's Great Public Space for 2013!

NEW BRUNSWICK MUSEUM

Spend an hour or two at the New Brunswick Museum enjoying stunning world-class exhibits, visiting the "Hall of Great Whales," the Fundy tidal tower, the Family Discovery Gallery or the unique gift shop.

A DAY FOR NATURE LOVERS

Nature lovers should visit Rockwood Park, one of Canada's largest urban parks, featuring 13 manmade lakes, the park encompasses 890 ha (2,200 ac.). Or visit Irving Nature Park, on the shores of the Bay of Fundy and only minutes from Uptown Saint John. It features volcanic rock, forests, mud flats, salt marshes and long sandy cobble beaches.

A DAY FOR URBAN EXPLORERS

Do some urban exploring in historic Uptown Saint John exploring boutiques, studios and restaurants offering everything from local seafood to ethnic cuisine! Visit Market Square, located on the historic Saint John Waterfront and check out a variety of entertainment on their Boardwalk. Take a walk along the water on Harbour Passage or relax in King's Square. Check out our Dining & Shopping (page 58) guides for all of the options!

WHERE to STAY

There are two programs in New Brunswick to assure visitors that the properties listed have met or exceeded standards for amenities, cleanliness, repair and staff courtesy.

All CAA/AAA rated properties must meet the same basic requirements for cleanliness and hospitality. A rating of one to five diamonds tells visitors what type of experience to expect, from no-frills to highly personalized.

The Canada Select / Camping Select Program goes one step further by providing nationally consistent standards and a recognized star rating system which awards properties (1) to (5) stars.

HAMPTON NEW BRUNSWICK

It's our nature!

The Town of Hampton is located 35 kms NE of Saint John, and is a small friendly community with many points of interest and beautiful scenery. If you are a boating enthusiast, consider this: the Kennebecasis River runs through Hampton, a perfect setting for canoeing, kayaking, or boating of any kind. Local rentals are available for paddlers or pontoon boat rides. Hampton is ideally situated on the Lower River Passage.

The town boasts rolling hills, waterways, farmland, marsh, and wildlife. Sitting high on a hill, overlooking Darlings Lake, is the Hampton Golf Course, one of the most scenic 18-hole golf courses in NB. Heritage buildings take you back in time and our welcoming people make you feel at home. Plan on doing some hiking, biking, boating or birding throughout the area. Our 30 acre Dutch Point Park is host to picturesque walking and cycling trails.

Consider accessing the Trans Canada Trail and walk amidst the flora, fauna, waterfowl and abundance of wildlife as you are strolling through town. The trail's entrance is home to Jim Boyd's marble sculpture, Burgeon.

Down at the Lighthouse River Centre are interpretive panels with information relating to the natural, historical and cultural history of the Town. There you will also find a picnic area, public wharf and boat launch. This Geosite is part of the Stonehammer UNESCO Global Geopark and is home to experience providers: Osprey Adventures and Zelda's River Adventures.

Our vibrant arts community is comprised of talented musicians, authors, photographers, sculptors, painters, jewellers, potters, woodworkers and craftspeople, who offer visitors a feast for all the senses. Hampton's Town Square is the site of Peace Wing, a granite sculpture by artist Jim Boyd and part of the International Sculpture Trail.

Hampton is proud to be the birthplace of John Peters Humphrey, who wrote the first draft of the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights in 1947. Hooper Studios created the Credo Monument, located on the front lawn of the Town Hall, in his honour.

The area's abundance of unique activities provides year-round enjoyment. So come visit Hampton... It's our nature!
