Steeped in history, the Lily Lake Pavilion has been a local tradition as a gathering place in Saint John for over a century.

Sitting on the shores of the pristine Lily Lake in Rockwood Park, the Lily Lake Pavilion offers a unique venue with a lakeside view. Located only 4 minutes from uptown Saint John, the Pavilion is home to Lily's Lakeside Casual Dining, a licensed restaurant with Saint John's only lakeside patio with seating for 100. The Pavilion offers a fully air conditioned banquet facility with modern décor to suit any event. Lily Lake Pavilion has consistently been voted Saint John's #1 wedding venue.

What makes the Lily Lake Pavilion unique is that it is operated by a registered charity. When the Lily Lake Pavilion & Lily's Lakeside Casual Dining is supported; the entire community is supported.

Also, home of the Frank & Ella Hatheway Labour Exhibit Centre displaying worker's memorabilia, vintage tools, old labour photos and historic labour documents dating back to the 1800s. Opened in 2007, the Centre is dedicated to preserving, promoting and honouring the rich history of workers and the labour movement in Saint John. On display outside the Centre is the exceptional April 28 Day of Mourning monument.

Saint John has a dinner theatre troupe that can present lively themed musical shows. The performers are also the servers, and musical comedy is what they serve up!

Evening By the Bay

Give an "upscale twist" to the popular Maritime Kitchen theme. Serve lobster in martini glasses, and feature special Bay of Fundy cocktails & local beer. Replace East Coast music with jazzy, hip entertainment. DeLancey's Brigade, a reenactment troupe, will arrest your group and march them to the venue.

Whale of a Time

The New Brunswick Museum provides a remarkable introduction to New Brunswick's rich cultural history and diverse natural environment and is the perfect backdrop for your private reception or meal. In the Hall of Great Whales, visitors are thrilled to wine and dine beneath a life-size model and the actual skeleton of a North Atlantic right whale and to learn about the fascinating marine life in the Bay of Fundy.

Maritime Gem

The breathtaking Imperial Theatre, restored to its 1913 Victorian splendor elegantly showcases an evening of Maritime entertainment for groups of up to 900. Or let your group take the spotlight, with space for a standup reception for 200 right on centre stage!

Companion Programs and Things To Do

Dine Around - Progressive Feast

Groups can host a Maritime dine-around or progressive feast, sampling a different course at each stop! Delegates will take a short walk between each location along the historic Trinity Royal Preservation area in the city's Uptown, sampling genuine Maritime cuisine.

Gallery Hop - Artists Studio Tour

Explore Uptown Saint John's artsy side as you hop from one gallery to the next. Taste the flavour of New Brunswick, while sampling local food and wines. Visit a real artist's studio to watch them at work and take home locally made crafts, jewellery and art as a souvenir. Or you become the artist and paint your own piece of pottery.

Day Trips and Guided Tours

Explore the caves

The Fundy coast east of Saint John is well worth exploring. Only a 45 minute drive to St. Martins, you can walk on the ocean floor! Visit sea caves and a 3-mile crescent beach. Photograph the lighthouses, twin covered bridges, visit gift shops, and sample succulent seafood. Explore the spectacular Fundy Trail, a 30-km drive with scenic lookouts. Walk along the suspension footbridge at Big Salmon River.

Coastal Kayak and Lobster Cookout

A 2-hour paddle along a coastal river route where you'll view limestone cliffs, a historic lighthouse and an active bald eagle's nest – all framed by the beautiful 400-mile long Saint John River. Then back to the beach to enjoy a traditional lobster cookout.

Whale watching, shopping

A one-hour drive west will take you to the historic resort town of St. Andrews-by-the-Sea. Stop for lunch at the beautiful Algonquin Resort. Visit the Huntsman Marine Science Centre; spend the day on the golf course; browse the many gift shops or head out onto the water for a 3-hour whale watching tour!

Saint John Uncorked (min 4 guests)

This 2-3 hour Uptown Saint John walking tour includes 4-6 stops, with a walking distance of 1km. You'll enjoy wine and beer tastings as well as history and architecture of Saint John including King's Square, the City Market, King Street, Market Slip and Prince William Street.

ACCOMMODATIONS

There are two programs in New Brunswick to assure visitors that the properties listed have met or exceeded standards for amenities, cleanliness, repair and staff courtesy.

All CAA/AAA rated properties must meet the same basic requirements for cleanliness and hospitality. A rating of one to five diamonds tells visitors what type of experience to expect, from no-frills to highly personalized.

The Canada Select / Camping Select Program goes one step further by providing nationally consistent standards and a recognized star rating system which awards properties (1) to (5) stars.
