DISCOVER THE SAINT JOHN REGION

With historic city streets, a plethora of world-class restaurants, charming boutiques, lovely art galleries, and the beautiful Bay of Fundy on its doorstep, Saint John is a vibrant city full of urban adventure on the edge of nature.

The Bay of Fundy, home to the world's highest tides, offers excitement and thrills in the heart of the city with the Reversing Falls Rapids. And Saint John acts as the perfect home-base for day-trips along the Fundy Coast to St. Martins and Fundy Trail Parkway.

The Saint John Region offers unspoiled historical treasures, incomparable access to nature and an arts and culture scene that is second to none.

POPULATION

Approximately 125,000 people live in the Saint John region, and 750,000 in New Brunswick, Canada's only officially bilingual province.

CLIMATE

Saint John has a temperate climate of approximately 22°C or 72°F in summer and -3°C or 25°F in winter. (But the trick to being on the Bay of Fundy is to wear layers!)

LOCATION

- 75 minute drive from the US border at Calais, Maine
- 5 hour drive from Portland, Maine
- 7 hour drive from Boston, Massachusetts
- 2-1/2 hour ferry crossing to Digby, Nova Scotia

REVERSING FALLS RAPIDS

Watch the Bay of Fundy's monstrous tides collide with the Saint John River from 110 feet up on a skywalk overlooking the Reversing Falls Rapids. Get a bird's eye view on the waves and whirlpools that result from nature's tug-of-war, at Fallsview and Wolastoq parks. discoversaintjohn.com/place/watch-natures-tug-war-reversing-falls-rapids

FUNDY TRAIL PARKWAY

Experience 30km of undeveloped spectacular Bay of Fundy coastline – drive, walk, hike, bike or relax. Enjoy "A Taste of History" and learn about life during the 1800's lumber and ship building industries while sampling authentic Maritime delicacies and a portion of a lumberjack's hearty meal in a replica heritage cookhouse. A connector road to Sussex opened in 2020 and a road to Alma is scheduled to open in 2021, completing a spectacular, scenic coastal link between Saint John, Sussex and Moncton, joining the entire southern portion of the province from St. Stephen in the west right to Sackville in the east. fundytrailparkway.com
